This was the decision reached Wednesday night at a special meeting of the oard of education. There were 354 students enrolled at the portables Thursday, and accommodations were made for only 300. Monday and Juesday 414 pupils registered, but many were shifted to the Laurel and

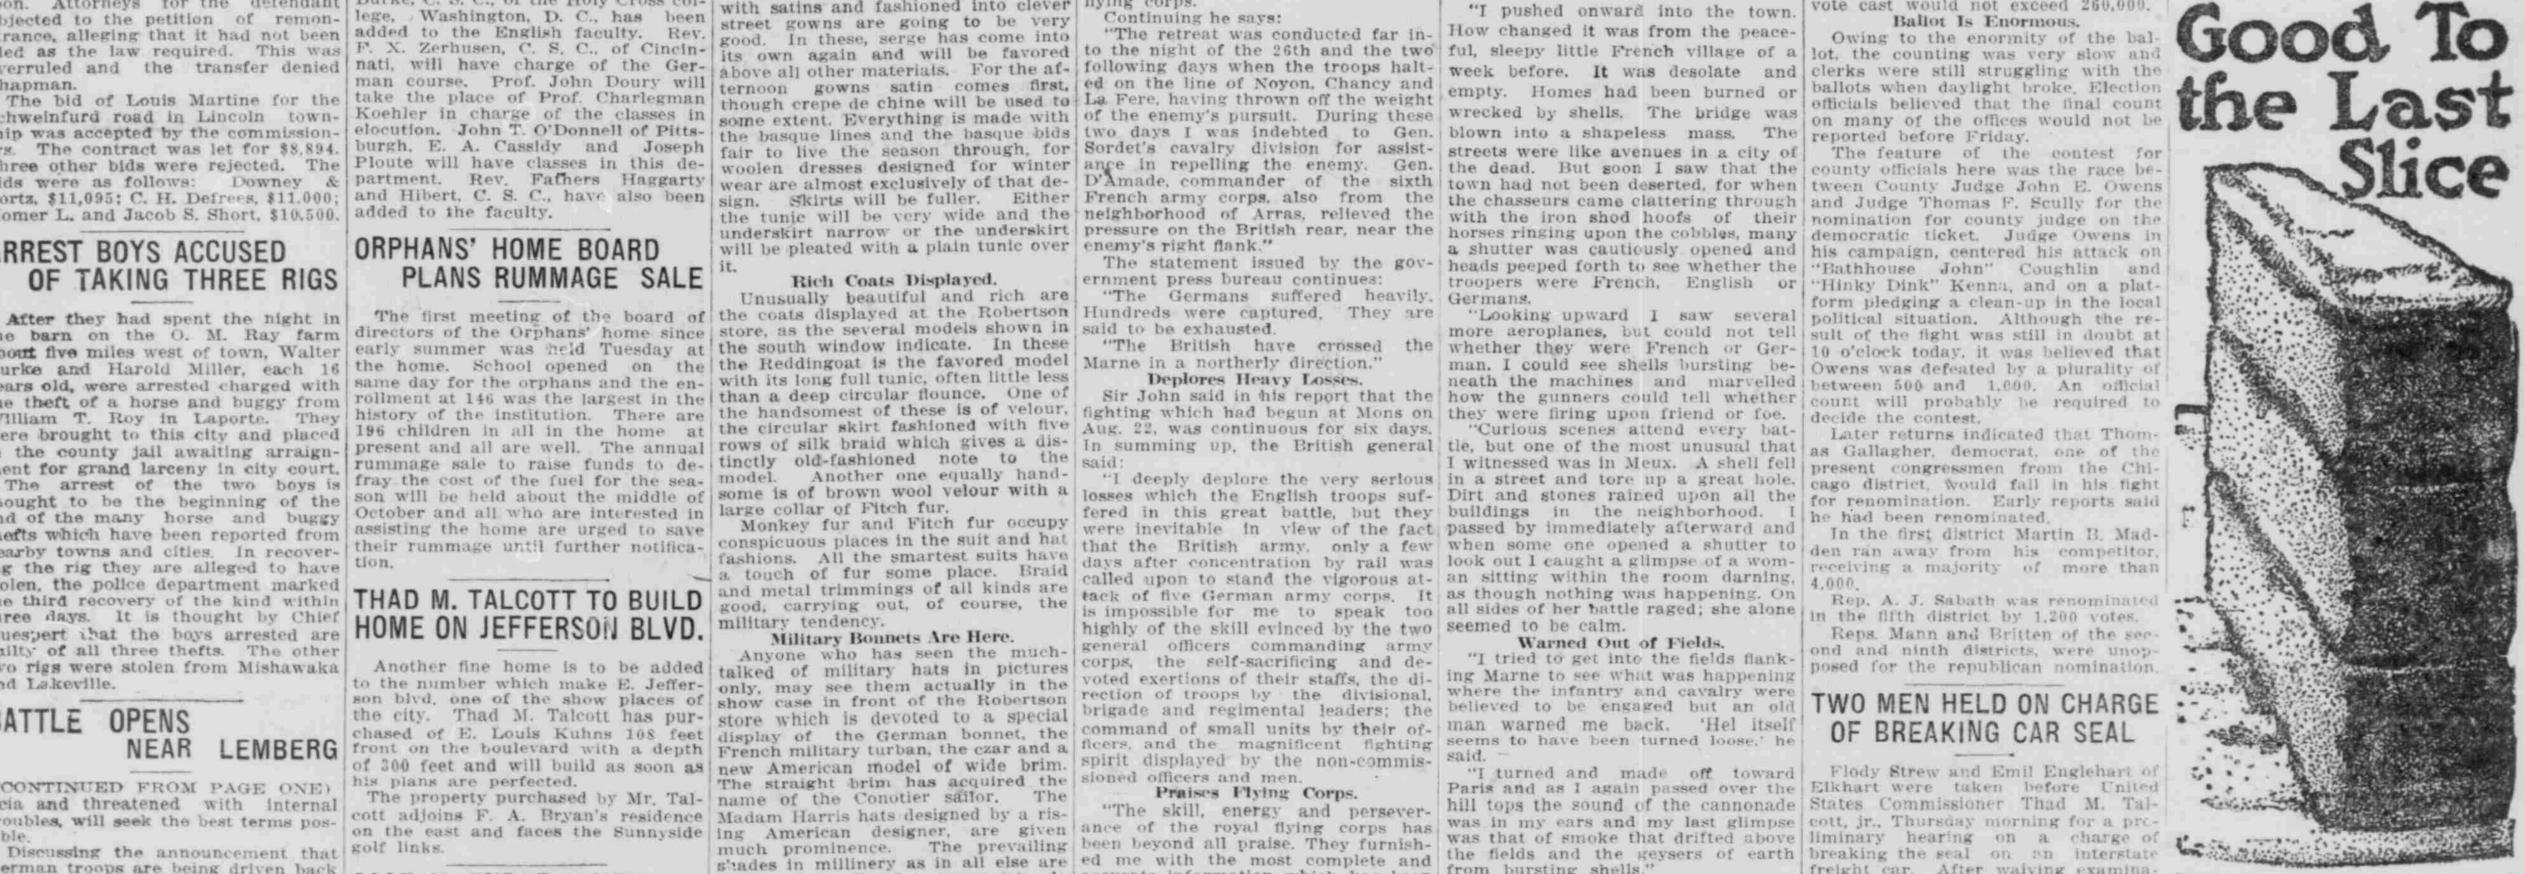

Oliver buildings. Mrs. George E. Sanford, 205 W. Navarre st., was appointed to manage the new cafeteria to be opened at the high school within the pext two weeks. Mrs. Sanford has had much experience in conducting school cafeterias. Prices charged for food will be similar to those charged at schools in Gary, Indianapolis and Terre Haute, where the pupils may get a have warm meals instead of having
